

THE POLICE & CRIME COMMISSIONER FOR CLEVELAND

DECISION RECORD FORM

REQUEST:

For PCC approval following agreement at the funding meeting on 10 August 2016.

Title:

Hartlepool Asylum Seeker and Refugee Group.

Executive Summary:

The Hartlepool Asylum Seeker and Refugee Group would like to plan and deliver a diversity event for the fourth consecutive year. The itinerary of the day would include presentations on key topics such as Hate Crime and Victim Support services, and would also include information and advice from a wide range of services including the Police, Fire Brigade, Credit Union, Harbour, Crime Prevention and Family Support Services.

The event will provide fun activities for children including face painting, arts and crafts and a magic show to end the event. Lunch is provided by volunteers from within the group who cook foods from their countries of origin and creates a menu from around the world.

This event is a celebration of the diverse cultures living in Hartlepool and helps to break down barriers and helps to build relationships between communities.

Decision:

To approve £500.00 spend from the PCC Community Safety Initiative Fund for Hartlepool Asylum Seeker and Refugee Group to plan and host a diversity event.
