I misunderstood when you sent me the photo of the flag, that you had it! Let's see if we can find it, before considering ordering another.

We had 1 large ES flag and 2 smaller ones, which were used for the Emergency services day ceremonies for last 2 years, I think taking place end of September last & previous year, which is a national day. The last I would see of it would be when one of the CSH operatives would be running it up the flagpole. Can you enquire within your estates group; I'm copying to [REDACTED] and from OPCC to [REDACTED]

If all can think back, and look around CSH over next few days, we may find it? – can all please go through cupboards, storage space etc.

If not, we'll have to get another, and hopefully someone can action the purchasing process asap, as we'll need it again for future national emergency day events.

All – background to this, which I've discussed with CC and he is in agreement – is that we will fly joint emergency services flag as a gesture of support at CSH, whilst govt. consultation is ongoing re increasing penalties re attacks on emergency services workers – a cause I'm sure we'd all like to support.

Regards
Barry
