Hi [REDACTED]

I discussed with Richard Lewis at our weekly meeting today. We're both of the view that the mass-meeting with chairs on the green is not appropriate at present – hopefully [REDACTED] and police colleagues can find a way of responding directly re concerns?

Regards
Barry

Hi [REDACTED]

Please find below further concerns being raised regarding off-road vehicles at [REDACTED]

I would really like to have a meeting with concerned residents and yourselves to discuss and also the PCC. I was thinking we could do outside on the Green at the centre of the estate if everyone brought a chair.

Also I would invite someone from Council's planning/engineering dept.

Any thoughts on the meeting idea please.

Best

Subject: [REDACTED] off road biking

Hello [REDACTED]

Hope your well?

I'm emailing you as I am a resident on the [REDACTED] I'm pretty sure I will not be the only one emailing you regarding the off road bike situation that's continuously happening. It is getting out of hand. I should not feel like I'm a prisoner in my own home and be scared to go and walk my dog around an estate I live in. All it takes is for kissing gates or boulders to be put in place to solve the ongoing situation, they are up and down day and night from the top of smiths dock, through our estate and head towards [REDACTED] I cannot stress enough how frustrating it is watching them get away with it every single day. I have heard the reason behind nothing being done is the fact its classed as a road? I really don't understand how that is true, I cannot drive a vehicle down it? It's also not safe or even possible to be classed as a road.

What will it take for Redcar and Cleveland council to acknowledge the situation? Does someone have to get seriously injured? It's a criminal offence that's happening on a daily basis and the police coming round for 10 minutes of the day does not stop this occurrence. I feel like the council need to take action and do something to stop this. Please can you advise me on the councils plans to solve this issue there is over 300 houses on this estate with a lot of un happy residents who are wanting to up sticks and leave including myself.

Kind regards

[REDACTED]
