Subject: Local Outbreak Control Board 03/07

Hello

Thank you all for joining the Local Outbreak Control Board Webex call earlier today. Below is a summary of the points discussed and associated actions for your information.

Agenda item and related action(s)	Owner	Due
Cross-boundary decision-making. [REDACTED] to be invited to join next LOCB call. [REDACTED] to present decision-making flows.	[REDACTED]	17/07
Local Outbreak website. Link to website HERE .	[REDACTED]	n/a
COVID case data Postcode level data, including mortality / testing rates to feature on next LOCB agenda and to be issued in advance. Pillar 1 and 2 data attached to this email [20200702 COVID-19 Tees Tracker]	[REDACTED]	15/07
AOB 1. A question raised at 02/07 Overview and Scrutiny Board about the use of the existing Health and Wellbeing Board to facilitate COVID outbreak planning and recovery efforts, which requires a formal response from Mayor as to why this would not be practical i.e. South Tees remit, group structure and regularity is not agile enough to respond accordingly. 2. Pin-prick testing of staff has seen discussions with TU and Health and Safety, however no decision has been taken as to whether this will progress as alternative arrangements are being discussed nationally. Any updates on this will be provided accordingly.	[REDACTED]	17/07

3. Meetings of the Local Outbreak Control Board will move to bi-weekly for July, with a view to moving to monthly from August, unless any local outbreaks occur.

The next meeting has been diarised for 17/07 and the agenda currently includes:

- Review of actions.
- Update from Local Outbreak Strategic Coordination Group. [REDACTED] Chief Executive.
- Decision-making flows. [REDACTED] Director of Legal and Governance.
- COVID case data. [REDACTED] Director of Public Health.

If you have any additional items you would like including on the agenda, please let me know in advance.

Many thanks,
