

THE POLICE & CRIME COMMISSIONER FOR CLEVELAND

DECISION RECORD FORM

REQUEST:
Seeking approval to increase Normal Police overtime budget to support Operation Stay Safe which is recharged to Middlesbrough Borough Council (arrangement agreed since 2008).
Title:
Operation Stay Safe
Executive Summary:
The PCC receives Income of £11,700 which is funding secured from Middlesbrough Borough Council. This is for the support of Police Officers to work along side a Multi - Agency Team (Barnardos and Social care) to identify and protect vulnerable children and young people on the street and in parks (identified hot-spots) of Middlesbrough at night through assertive outreach. Cleveland Police create event numbers for each stay safe and every interaction is recorded with event numbers. Police also provide a marked vehicle suitable for the operation. This is a worthwhile operation which impacts on the the growing concerns around CSE and has the potential to be bigger with the possibility to target other LPA'S with identified target hot spots. The operation also benefits by having some impacts on issues around ASB.
Decision:
The PCC to provide additional overtime budget of £11,700 to offset the overtime costs to provide policing support to Operation Stay Safe.

Decision Required – Supporting Information

Financial Implications: (Must include comments of the PCC's CFO where the decision has financial implications)

All of the funding requested to be released will be Invoiced on a quarterly basis to Middlesbrough Borough Council as Operations occur. In previous years Invoices have exceed costs incurred by the force therefore additional Income has been achieved.

Legal Implications: (Must include comments of the Monitoring Officer where the decision has legal implication)

No significant issues arise

Equality and Diversity Implications

No significant issues arise

Human Rights Implications

No significant issues arise

Sustainability Implications

The approval of the expenditure requested within this document does not commit the PCC to spending in other areas. The activity / operation being under taken will not require recurring expenditure and costs are charged to Middlesbrough Council therefore no sustainability implications.

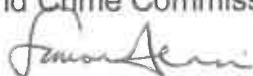

Risk Management Implications

No significant issues arise
