The family fun day will commence with a procession from the Sikh Temple to Centre Square at 10.00am. During the procession there will be music and singing of the Sikh Holy Scriptures. The event in Centre Square will start at 12pm and there will be speeches by key community leaders followed by a free lunch (langer) provided by the Sikh Community to all those who attend. Other attractions in the Square include information stalls about education, training and community safety and martial art displays.
The Sikh Temple requested £5,000 however, a £2,400 contribution towards the event was agreed by the PCC for external traffic management, stage hire and construction and a public announcement system.
