

THE POLICE & CRIME COMMISSIONER FOR CLEVELAND

DECISION RECORD FORM

REQUEST: For PCC approval

Title: Essentials for Dealing with LGBT Hate Crime

Executive Summary:

LGBT Federation North East are an infrastructure organisation working to unite LGBT individuals, groups, organisations and communities across the north east. The Federation undertakes research and develops self sustaining activities that aim to change attitudes and behaviours towards LGBT people.

The project will involve upskilling LGBT community members as community advocates to support LGBT victims of hate crime through the criminal justice process, and also training those working with the criminal justice system on the effect of LGBT hate crime to enable them to deal more sensitively with victims of LGBT hate crime.

Decision:

To agree £3,050 funding from the PCC Community Safety Initiatives Fund to enable LGBT Federation North East to deliver:

- Upskilling of 10 LGBT community advocates to support LGBT victims through the criminal justice system.
- Training for 10 to 20 people from the criminal justice system on the effect of LGBT hate crime to enable them to deal more sensitively with victims of LGBT hate crime.
